Precinct Two Economic Development Funds

Harris County Precinct Two Commissioner Sylvia R. Garcia announced today that four organizations working on economic development in the precinct have received continued funding from the county.

“As I enter my second term as Commissioner, I am pleased to see the progress these groups have made collectively and individually,” Garcia said. “Each of them is working to show growth and progress not only in economic development but, in Precinct Two’s quality of life.”

The four organizations receiving funds are:

Bay Area Houston Economic Partnership -- $115,000

North Harris Montgomery Community College District -- $100,000

Economic Alliance – Houston Port Region -- $75,000

Baytown/West Chambers County Economic Development Foundation -- $50,000

Also receiving funding were the Greater Houston Partnership ($175,000) and the Katy Economic Development Council ($15,000).
