

Harris County PCT 2 Commissioner Sylvia R. Garcia joined Governor Rick Perry as he signed the Port Security Bill passed during the most recent legislative session in Austin. Garcia worked on the legislation along with local legislators, homeland security officials and Port of Houston representatives to ensure the Houston Port region is adequately funded.

Joining the Governor and the Commissioner for the signing at the Port of Houston executive offices Tuesday were (on the front row L-to-R): Port Commissioners Janiece Longoria and Jim Fonteno, Jr., Morgan's Point Mayor Peggy Arisco, Seabrook Mayor Robin Riley and Port of Houston Authority Executive Director Tom Kornegay.
